St. James's, November 25.

This Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, and Court of Aldermen of the City of London, waited on his Majesty to congratulate him on his safe Return; when John Stracey, Esq; the Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Speech.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London esteem it the highest Honour to be permitted to approach your Royal Person, and gladly embrace this Opportunity to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe Arrival in Great Britain, and to express their unfeigned Joy upon this happy Occasion.

These your Majesty's most Faithful and Dutiful Subjects are truly sensible, from the many Blessings they have enjoyed during the whole Course of your auspicious Reign, that your Paternal Care and Goodness are ever watchful for the Interest, and intent upon promoting the Welfare and Prosperity of these Kingdoms.

To this your Paternal Regard and Concern for the Happiness of your People, and to that Sense of true Glory which animates your Royal Breast for the Good of Mankind, they most thankfully attribute the Restoration of Peace and Tranquility to Europe; a Blessing which cannot fail of producing the most beneficial Effects to this your Majesty's Metropolis, so eminently distinguished for its extensive Trade and Commerce.

Under a due Sense of the highest Obligations for the many signal Instances of your Majesty's peculiar Favour and Protection to the Citizens of London, they beg Leave to tender their most grateful Acknowledgments; and to assure your Majesty of their Zeal and Affection for your Royal Person and Family; and that they will, upon all Occasions, exert the utmost of their Abilities for the Support of your most gracious Government, and to render your Reign, which diffuses so many Blessings upon your Subjects, easy and happy to your Majesty.

To which his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this Mark of your Affection and Zeal for my Person and Government. It has been my great Care, in the Re-establishment of the Publick Peace, to make effectual Provision for the Security of the Trade and Commerce of my Subjects; and it gives me great Satisfaction to find that it is so agreeable to my Loyal City of London.

They all had the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

After which his Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on John Stracey, Esq; their Recorder.
